

DESS 2017 Undergraduate Competition

The Dayton Engineering Sciences Symposium (DESS) is hosting an engineering presentation competition.

- Each competitor will give a thirteen-minute oral presentation plus five minutes for questions.
- Presentations must address a technical, economic or environmental aspect of engineering or other basic engineering theme (provided it pertains to some sphere in which an engineer is or should be involved).
- Patterned after the ASME Old Guard competition.
- Presentation feedback provided by experienced judges.
- Awards will be given for the best presentation and the best technical content!

To be held at Wright State University during the 2017 DESS!
Questions and nominations may be directed to dholland@cedarville.edu
